SENATOR MICHAEL O. MOORE RECEIVES COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS

Boston – State Senator Michael O. Moore (D–Millbury) will be taking on new legislative responsibilities after committee appointments were announced by Senate President Therese Murray (D-Plymouth). He will now be the Chairman of the Joint Committee on Community Development and Small Business as well as the Vice Chairman of the Joint Committee of Elder Affairs. These new appointed roles are in addition to Senator Moore being named a member of the Joint Committee of Environment, Natural Resources and Agriculture, the Senate Post Audit and Oversight Committee, and the Senate Bonding, Capital Expenditures and State Assets Committee.

Senator Moore, is excited by his appointments and has taken an interest to gaining responsibility for shaping state policy in this area. “I am honored to be appointed chair of the Joint Committee on Community Development and Small Business during my first Senate term,” said Senator Moore. “I look forward to working with my House Co-Chair Linda Dorcena-Forry on the important legislative issues that come before this committee; I am confident that I can meet the challenges that communities are facing during these difficult economic times.”
